and the driving school EASY DRIVE GmbH.

The driving instructors of the Easy-Drive driving school strive to train every student professionally, safely and efficiently. In order to guarantee the smooth running of your practical driving lessons, we ask you to comply with the following rules:

general:

- Be on time, at the meeting point.
- You must carry a valid learner license with you on every drive. Included on exam day!
- The consumption of alcohol, drugs and medicines that affect driving ability before and during driving is not allowed.
- (It is 0.0 promille). In the event of violations, we reject any liability. Insurance recourse and disclosure remain reserved.
- Fines that are clearly caused by the fault of the learner driver are at the expense of the learner.

cancellation:

- Cancellations or changes must be announced at least 2 working days before the agreed date.
- In the event of being prevented, delayed or in the event of illness, the driving instructor must be notified immediately by telephone.
- Missing or late cancellations will be charged with the full lesson price.
- Delays or short-term cancellations caused by the employer are charged with the full price of the lesson.

insurance:

- The one-time participation of CHF 90 in the fully comprehensive and liability insurance of the Easy-Drive driving school is obligatory, this must be paid within the first two driving lessons.
- If a learner driver changes to another driving school, the paid insurance will not be refunded.
- Damage caused by gross negligence is not insured.
